TRANSFORMING SUPPLY CHAINS WITH AGENTIC AI: AN EXCLUSIVE EXECUTIVE DINNER

September 23, 2025

5:30 PM-9:00 PM

Central Time

Designed for senior leaders across Retail and Manufacturing, this private dinner convenes executives to discuss the future of global supply chains. Companies today face a perfect storm of volatility—tariffs and shifting trade policies, unpredictable demand, and rising cost pressures—while customers and investors demand faster, more resilient, and more sustainable operations. Leaders will share perspectives on how industry pioneers are rethinking supply chain strategy—embracing new approaches to scenario planning, improving demand visibility, and strengthening resilience across global networks. This evening offers a unique opportunity to exchange perspectives with peers, uncover actionable strategies, and connect with leaders shaping the future of Retail and Manufacturing.
